INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL OPENS

FORMALLY DEDICATED LAST EVENING AMIDST BRILLIANT CEREMONIES.

A MODEL INSTITUTION

Building and Grounds Were Brilliantly Illuminated--Over Three Hundred People Present--Gov. Brodie and Professor Babcock Make Addresses.

Under an act of the legislature which took effect in March, 1901, there was dedicated formally to use for which the legislature intended it, the Territorial Reform School of Arizona last evening, amidst most brilliant ceremonies, at which the governor of the territory made an appropriate address, as well as Professor Babcock of Tucson, whose eloquent remarks reached the hearts of all those present. Mr. Stephen Roemer, who may well be considered the "Father of the Reform School," has seen the culmination of his efforts in the magnificent institution which tonight was consecrated to the uses for which it was built. Under the above named act, paragraph 3723, Sec. 1, reads: "There shall be established and maintained in this territory, and located at or near Benson, in the county of Cochise, an institution to be known as the 'Reform School for Juvenile Offenders,' for the confinement, discipline, education, employment and reformation of juvenile offenders in the Territory of Arizona."

This bill was introduced in the legislature by Mr. Roemer, and at the last session of the legislature, had the appropriation passed for the furnishing of the same, and it is to the assiduous attention and energy of Mr. Roemer that Arizona is indebted today for the handsome structure which tonight was turned over to the superintendent, and for the purposes named in the act.

It was almost entirely through the efforts of the gentleman named above that the act was passed, and tonight the building is ready to receive those who are to occupy it. The building was erected at a cost of $24,732.00, and is a very handsome structure from an architectural standpoint, and perfectly adapted to the uses named in the act. There are accommodations for twenty-five inmates, with every facility for school and training purposes. The building is completely finished, and has just been completely furnished throughout with the best of everything necessary for the conduct of the school. The basement contains the acetylene gas plant which was used tonight and brilliantly lighted the institution from top to bottom. There are also the commissary department and cells for close confinement for any who may prove extremely unruly, but it is the intention of the superintendent that only the most extreme urgency will necessitate the use of these. The first floor is devoted to public reception rooms, officers' quarters, the dining room and kitchen. Particular attention has been paid to the culinary department for cleanliness and perfect ventilation. The second floor has the dormitory, the school room and the private quarters of the superintendent. In every particular the institution is one of the models of the territory.

The completion of the building has

PRESIDENT MITCHELL IN TRINIDAD THE 2ND

(Special Dispatch to Review.)

Trinidad, Col., Nov. 30.—All doubts of President Mitchell coming to Trinidad were dispelled today by the receipt of a telegram to John F. Ream from Mitchell personally, dated Chicago, in which among other things Mitchell says: "Will arrive in Trinidad over the Santa Fe on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock. Reserve hotel accommodations."

Great hopes are entertained by the striking miners that the coming of Mr. Mitchell will bring about the termination of the strike, which has been pending now for nearly a month. This hope is also expressed by the citizens of the place, who are feeling the effects of the lockout to a considerable degree, as well as much suffering caused the miners.

GRAND JURY AT WORK IN NEBRASKA

INVESTIGATING THE POST OFFICE APPOINTMENTS THERE.

The Postmasters Are Summoned From Number of Post Offices--Senator Dietrich Has Not Yet Appeared in Court.

Omaha, Nov. 30.—The federal grand jury today resumed its investigation of the alleged bribery in connection with the post office appointments in Nebraska. The manner of appointment of the postmaster at Alma, in Harlan county, Arapahoe, Orleans and Oxford, in Nebraska, is now before the jurors. Among the witnesses called are a number of clerks and others connected with the Alma post office, and A. W. Billings, a son of the postmaster of Alma. Elliott Low, a member of the last legislature, is also one of the witnesses called.

Low is alleged to have been given the privilege of making the appointment at Alma, in consideration of his voting for certain senatorial candidates. United States Senator Dietrich is still at his home in Hastings, and his attorney, John C. Cowin, stated today that he could not tell when the senator would appear in court.

IS BACK AGAIN FROM LOS ANGELES

MR. BARBOUR RETURNS AND HAS NUMEROUS PLANS FOR DON LUIS.

The Work Started in the Past Will Be Carried on With the Same Vigor That Has Characterized the Company Heretofore.

Judge Barnes arrived in the city on Monday morning in anticipation of the return of Mr. Henry P. Barbour for a consultation with the latter gentleman. Mr. Barbour arrived in the evening, and is today to be seen at the offices of the company, or at the townsite pushing along the work to his vigorous manner. Judge Barnes visited the townsite on Monday afternoon and expressed himself as surprised at the progress that has been made since his last visit to Bisbee. The Judge leaves this morning for Cananea, where he will join Colonel Greene on an extended automobile trip through a portion of Sonora. Mr. Barbour returns with numerous plans for the improvement and building of the Don Luis Townsite, which is making a most splendid showing at the present time with buildings of various kinds. Of these plans the company will tell the public from time to time through the columns of the Review, and it will more than please the lot owners of the town. The grading of the streets progresses rapidly, and building operations are being carried on with all the energy possible.

From Tombstone there were George Rybon, G. W. Swain, W. W. Glenn, Fred Calvaretto, C. W. Cunningham, Allen Thompson, H. E. Burns, Geo. Wilcox, F. E. Moreno, E. B. Gage and Alvan Howe. From Bisbee the Rev. H. M. Shields, Capt. Thos. Rynning, Judge Johnson, Geo. J. McCabe and wife, H. Temple and wife of Naco, and W. B. Kelly and wife. Capt. Rynning will stop in Bisbee on his return. There will be two rangers permanently stationed in Bisbee shortly. The Captain is very proud of the magnificent watch presented to him by the A. C. Co., the D. C. Co., and the Shanton Companies at Clifton on account of the services rendered during the strike of last summer at Morenci.

MEMBER COLUMBIAN CONGRESS

ARRIVES IN COLON FROM BOGOTA--SEVERELY AFFRONTED.

At Bogota and on the Magdalena River He Was Threatened With Molestation--U. S. Legation Is Guarded by Fifty Soldiers--Discontent Growing.

Colon, Nov. 30.—Luis Deroux, who was a member of the Colombian House of Representatives from Panama, and who made a speech in the house on October 2nd, warning Colombia to sign the Hay-Herran canal treaty immediately, or she would lose the Isthmus the day congress closed, and who was instrumental in bringing about the appointment of General Obaldia as governor of Panama, has arrived here from Bogota, whence he started on November 14. Senor Deroux is a Panamanian, and owing to his well known political connections he was subjected to many annoyances and affronts at Bogota and on the Magdalena river, where at one place on the passage down a number of Colombians threatened to board the steamer and molest him.

When Deroux left Bogota the United States legation was guarded by fifty soldiers.

HANNA GIVES LABOR THE JOLLY

BREAKFAST TO MONTANA WORKMEN AT WOLDFORD-ASTORIA.

We Guess Governor Herrick of Ohio, Governor Morrison, of Idaho and Congressman Dick Just Happened in too, Because they Love Labor.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Not to be outdone by President Roosevelt, who entertained a delegation of Montana labor leaders at luncheon in the White House on Tuesday, Senator Mark Hanna entertained the same labor leaders at breakfast at the Waldorf-Astoria. And the company which the "Wise Man of Cleveland"—the name which has been bestowed upon Mr. Hanna in New York—quickly gathered together to help entertain the labor leaders was quite as distinguished as that which assisted the president in the White House.

Senator Hanna had Governor Herrick of Ohio, Governor John T. Morrison of Idaho and Congressman Charles Dick of Ohio to help him make the breakfast at the Waldorf go off smoothly.

The courtesies of Mr. Hanna to the labor leaders did not stop with the breakfast. He kept close to the la-

BRYAN AND CHOATE IN HOT REPARTEE

NEBRASKAN, GUEST OF HONOR AT LONDON BANQUET.

Says he is Thankful in Being Permitted to Land in England--Visits Bank of England--Pays Graceful Tribute to English Guests.

London, Nov. 30.—The American Society in London gave a banquet at the Hotel Cecil. There were over 400 covers. William Jennings Bryan was the guest of honor.

The speeches, for the while flavored by the usual seasonal cheer and references to Anglo-American friendliness, developed particularly into a duel of repartee, goodnatured but almost subacid, between Mr. Bryan and Ambassador Choate.

Turning to Mr. Bryan, Mr. Choate, while responding to a toast, said it was the custom of Americans, torn from their native shores, to gather together annually and return thanks. The American Society in London had now among them another of these exiles, for whom personally he, as ambassador, had been doing the best he could.

He had taken Mr. Bryan to visit the Bank of England, where he was able to study the fiscal question in its na-

McKINLEY'S FOLLOWERS FOR HANNA

MANY REPUBLICANS IN INDIANA ARE OPPOSED TO ROOSEVELT.

HOSTILITY SHOWN HIM

The State is Being Flooded With Anti-Roosevelt Literature--Fight is Assuming Serious Proportions--No Concealment of Desire to Down the President.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 30.—Events of the last sixty hours in Indiana make it extremely likely that President Roosevelt will be opposed bitterly by the old line McKinley republicans. Among the foremost republican politicians of this state there is no concealment of the desire to "throw Roosevelt."

Letters from New York, the writers of whom are not given out, declare that Mr. Roosevelt can not secure the full support of New York republicans; that business men of New York are opposed to his nomination; that he will fail of election if nominated, and that conditions demand the nomination of a strong man of the McKinley type.

When asked about Senator Fairbanks for second place on the ticket Indiana Republicans answer: "Fairbanks is too big for the second place with Roosevelt."

Underneath all this is the evidence of an extensive scheme, the ramifications of which have extended throughout Ohio, New York, Illinois and up into the storm-tossed sea of Republican politics in Iowa.

Governor Durbin is known to be an out-and-out Roosevelt man, and it is pretty well established, since his return from Washington, that he has regarded the die as cast, and that he now recognizes Roosevelt as a serious opponent of the president which is serious in its proportions.

All the leading Fairbanks men express doubt that the party can elect Mr. Roosevelt if he is nominated. For them will yet come out in the open. Like their suave and sagacious leader, they prefer to keep to the brush, and deep grays of political mystery and darkness come out over their names and name their "reference."

Judge Hiram Brownlee, who is generally regarded as a political free lance, is really a regular of regulars, closely associated with the machine, is out in a statement in the local organ of the Fairbanks followers in which he boldly proclaims himself "for Mark for president." Then the Judge proceeds to say:

"Hanna would be stronger in Indiana than any other man, except an Indiana man. I am for Hanna if there is no candidate from Indiana."

While all this is happening the State is being flooded with anti-Roosevelt literature, and a movement is now on foot to postpone the meeting of the republican state committee until Chairman Goodrich has had a chance to meet the members of the national committee in Washington, Dec. 11.

TRAMPS HOLD-UP SOUTHERN PACIFIC

(Special Dispatch to Review.)

Tucson, Nov. 30.—A gang of thirty tramps took possession of an east bound Southern Pacific freight train at Maricopa last night. The conductor, Ezra Shelley, and his crew were helpless to resist on account of overpowering numbers. The operator at Red Rock wired to Tucson for assistance, and the train was met at Rillito by Sheriff Murphy and a posse of deputy sheriffs. The tramps were routed after a battle with sticks and stones, and nine were captured and brought to the city jail in Tucson. The remainder made their escape in the darkness. It was one of the most desperate hold-ups ever attempted line of the Southern Pacific.
